

---

Estratto

Estratto da un prodotto in vendita su ShopWKL, il negozio online di Wolters Kluwer Italia

Vai alla scheda →

---

Wolters Kluwer opera nel mercato dell'editoria professionale, del software, della formazione e dei servizi con i marchi: IPSOA, CEDAM, Altalex, UTET Giuridica, il fisco.

Wolters Kluwer

CONTENTS

|                    |          |
|--------------------|----------|
| Preface .....      | pag.XVII |
| Bibliography ..... | » XXI    |

PART I THE CONSTRUCT OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

CHAPTER 1 THE PATH TO EUROPEAN INTEGRATION

|      |                                                                                              |      |    |
|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----|
| I.   | The conceptual and cultural foundations of the European integration project .....            | pag. | 1  |
| II.  | The foundational values and the aim of integrating peoples . . . .                           | »    | 7  |
| III. | The complexity of the system and the erosion of national sovereignty .....                   | »    | 10 |
| IV.  | The role of the Court of Justice in deconstructing the concept of national sovereignty ..... | »    | 10 |
| V.   | Fragmentation of state sovereignty and supranationalism . . . . .                            | »    | 13 |
| VI.  | Metamorphosis of the concept of sovereignty into the process of European integration .....   | »    | 14 |
| VII. | The fading of national sovereignty in normative pluralism . . . . .                          | »    | 16 |

CHAPTER 2 EU MEMBERSHIP

|     |                                          |      |    |
|-----|------------------------------------------|------|----|
| I.  | The acquisition of membership .....      | pag. | 19 |
| II. | Withdrawal .....                         | »    | 21 |
|     | Part I and Preface Further reading ..... | »    | 29 |

PART II

UNION'S AREAS OF ACTION

CHAPTER I

THE SYSTEM OF COMPETENCES

|       |                                                                                                                                                               |      |    |
|-------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----|
| I.    | Internal competences . . . . .                                                                                                                                | pag. | 35 |
| II.   | Versatility of competences . . . . .                                                                                                                          | »    | 42 |
| III.  | The flexibility clause . . . . .                                                                                                                              | »    | 45 |
| IV.   | Exclusive competences . . . . .                                                                                                                               | »    | 49 |
| V.    | Shared competences, subsidiarity and pre-emption . . . . .                                                                                                    | »    | 52 |
| VI.   | Supplementary competences . . . . .                                                                                                                           | »    | 60 |
| VII.  | Horizontal limits to the exercise of conferred competences(national identity; equality of member states; loyal cooperation;proportionality) . . . . . | »    | 66 |
| VIII. | External competences . . . . .                                                                                                                                | »    | 69 |
| IX.   | Mixed agreements . . . . .                                                                                                                                    | »    | 77 |
| X.    | The multiplication of legal bases to claim 'mixity' . . . . .                                                                                                 | »    | 80 |
| XI.   | Hybrid decisions by common accord . . . . .                                                                                                                   | »    | 81 |
| XII.  | The inclusion of a legal basis related to matters of Freedom,Security and Justice . . . . .                                                               | »    | 84 |

CHAPTER 2

THE COMMON FOREIGN AND SECURITY POLICY

|      |                                                |      |    |
|------|------------------------------------------------|------|----|
| I.   | CFSP's specificity . . . . .                   | pag. | 89 |
| II.  | Competences and constraints . . . . .          | »    | 94 |
| III. | EU sanctions . . . . .                         | »    | 96 |
| IV.  | The European External Action Service . . . . . | »    | 98 |

CHAPTER 3

PROTECTION OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

|      |                                                        |      |     |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | The judicial origin . . . . .                          | pag. | 101 |
| II.  | Promoting the respect for fundamental rights . . . . . | »    | 104 |
| III. | The Lisbon Reform . . . . .                            | »    | 108 |
| IV.  | EU accession to the ECHR . . . . .                     | »    | 114 |

CHAPTER 4

DIFFERENTIATING THE APPLICATION OF THE LAW:
ENHANCED COOPERATION

|     |                                                                |      |     |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | The rationale of the tool . . . . .                            | pag. | 117 |
| II. | The conditions for resorting to enhanced cooperation . . . . . | »    | 118 |
|     | Part II Further reading . . . . .                              | »    | 120 |

PART III

THE INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK

CHAPTER 1

THE PRINCIPLES OF ATTRIBUTION
AND INSTITUTIONAL BALANCE

|     |                                                       |      |     |
|-----|-------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | The evolution of the institutional system . . . . .   | pag. | 129 |
| II. | Institutional balance and loyal cooperation . . . . . | »    | 130 |

CHAPTER 2

THE DEMOCRATIC LEGITIMACY OF THE UNION

|     |                                                                            |      |     |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | The strengthening of the European Parliament's law-making powers . . . . . | pag. | 133 |
| II. | The dual democratic legitimacy of the system . . . . .                     | »    | 134 |

CHAPTER 3

LOBBYING IN THE POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS

|     |                                                                    |      |     |
|-----|--------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | The legitimate representation of civil society interests . . . . . | pag. | 141 |
| II. | The Code of Conduct . . . . .                                      | »    | 142 |

CHAPTER 4

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

|      |                                                              |      |     |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | The political link with the European citizens . . . . .      | pag. | 147 |
| II.  | The electoral system and the distribution of seats . . . . . | »    | 149 |
| III. | European Parliament powers . . . . .                         | »    | 151 |

CHAPTER 5

THE EUROPEAN COUNCIL AND THE COUNCIL

|      |                                                          |      |     |
|------|----------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | The European Council .....                               | pag. | 155 |
| II.  | The Council .....                                        | »    | 156 |
| III. | The Committee of Permanent Representatives (COREPER) ... | »    | 157 |
| IV.  | Voting in the Council. ....                              | »    | 159 |
| V.   | Council voting as of November 1st, 2014. ....            | »    | 162 |
| VI.  | The Ioannina plus compromise. ....                       | »    | 162 |
| VII. | The reverse qualified majority. ....                     | »    | 163 |

CHAPTER 6

THE COMMISSION

|     |                                                             |      |     |
|-----|-------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | Composition, appointment, and removal of the Commission ... | pag. | 167 |
| II. | Main powers and functions .....                             | »    | 170 |

CHAPTER 7

THE COURT OF JUSTICE

|      |                                                         |      |     |
|------|---------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | The organization of the Court of Justice. ....          | pag. | 171 |
| II.  | Composition and functions of the Court of Justice ..... | »    | 172 |
| III. | Composition and functions of the General Court .....    | »    | 174 |

CHAPTER 8

THE EUROPEAN CENTRAL BANK AND THE COURT OF AUDITORS

|     |                                 |      |     |
|-----|---------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | The European Central Bank ..... | pag. | 177 |
| II. | The Court of Auditors. ....     | »    | 181 |
|     | Part III Further reading. ....  | »    | 182 |

PART IV

SOURCES OF LAW

CHAPTER I

HIERARCHY OF NORMS

|     |                                            |      |     |
|-----|--------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | The corpus juris of the Union ..... | pag. | 185 |
| II. | The pyramidal order of Union norms. ....   | »    | 186 |

|       |                                                                             |      |     |
|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| III.  | Primary law . . . . .                                                       | pag. | 187 |
| IV.   | The Charter of Fundamental Rights and the common system of values . . . . . | »    | 190 |
| V.    | The intermediate category between Treaties and legislative acts . . .       | »    | 193 |
| VI.   | International agreements . . . . .                                          | »    | 194 |
| VII.  | Legislation . . . . .                                                       | »    | 196 |
| VIII. | Delegated acts . . . . .                                                    | »    | 198 |
| IX.   | Implementing acts . . . . .                                                 | »    | 199 |
| X.    | Interinstitutional agreements . . . . .                                     | »    | 200 |

CHAPTER 2

SECONDARY LAW

|      |                                          |      |     |
|------|------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | Legislative acts . . . . .               | pag. | 203 |
| II.  | The requirements of legal acts . . . . . | »    | 204 |
| III. | Regulations . . . . .                    | »    | 205 |
| IV.  | Directives . . . . .                     | »    | 207 |
| V.   | Decisions . . . . .                      | »    | 209 |

CHAPTER 3

THIRD-TIER LEGAL ACTS

|      |                                                                     |      |     |
|------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | Non-legislative acts . . . . .                                      | pag. | 211 |
| II.  | Quasi-legislative power as the subject-matter of delegation . . . . | »    | 212 |
| III. | The notion of the essential element of a legislative act . . . . .  | »    | 216 |
| IV.  | Rules and principles of delegation . . . . .                        | »    | 217 |
| V.   | The Commission's implementing activity . . . . .                    | »    | 218 |
| VI.  | The distinction between delegated and implementing acts . . . .     | »    | 221 |
| VII. | Comitology . . . . .                                                | »    | 223 |

CHAPTER 4

DIRECT AND INDIRECT EFFECTS

|      |                                                                    |      |     |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | The notion of direct effect . . . . .                              | pag. | 227 |
| II.  | Vertical and horizontal direct effect . . . . .                    | »    | 232 |
| III. | Consistent interpretation or doctrine of indirect effect . . . . . | »    | 237 |

CHAPTER 5

RECOMMENDATIONS, OPINIONS AND SOFT-LAW INSTRUMENTS

|     |                               |      |     |
|-----|-------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | Soft law . . . . .            | pag. | 241 |
| II. | Effects of soft law . . . . . | »    | 242 |

CHAPTER 6

LAW-MAKING PROCEDURES

|      |                                                                                                      |      |     |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | General rules . . . . .                                                                              | pag. | 245 |
| II.  | The Commission's power to make proposals . . . . .                                                   | »    | 246 |
| III. | The powers to amend and withdraw the proposal . . . . .                                              | »    | 248 |
| IV.  | The ordinary legislative procedure . . . . .                                                         | »    | 249 |
| V.   | The special legislative procedure . . . . .                                                          | »    | 253 |
| VI.  | The role of National Parliaments in ensuring the respect for the principle of subsidiarity . . . . . | »    | 254 |

CHAPTER 7

THE TREATY-MAKING PROCEDURE

|      |                                                             |      |     |
|------|-------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | General rules . . . . .                                     | pag. | 259 |
| II.  | The common procedure . . . . .                              | »    | 260 |
| III. | The role of the European Parliament . . . . .               | »    | 261 |
| IV.  | The advisory jurisdiction of the Court of Justice . . . . . | »    | 262 |
|      | Part IV Further reading . . . . .                           | »    | 264 |

PART V

THE SYSTEM OF JUDICIAL REVIEW

CHAPTER I

THE MONIST CONCEPTUAL SCHEME

|     |                                                                                                               |      |     |
|-----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | The rule of law and the role of national courts as foundations of the supranational judicial system . . . . . | pag. | 269 |
| II. | Judicial gaps . . . . .                                                                                       | »    | 281 |

CHAPTER 2

JUDICIAL REVIEW OVER UNION INSTRUMENTS

|      |                                                            |      |     |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | Introduction . . . . .                                     | pag. | 285 |
| II.  | Interim measures . . . . .                                 | »    | 285 |
| III. | Requirements of admissibility . . . . .                    | »    | 286 |
| IV.  | Locus standi: different categories of applicants . . . . . | »    | 290 |
| V.   | The standard of review and grounds for annulment . . . . . | »    | 297 |
| VI.  | The plea of illegality . . . . .                           | »    | 303 |

CHAPTER 3

ACTION FOR FAILURE TO ACT

|     |                                                                    |      |     |
|-----|--------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | The nature of the remedy. Admissibility and locus standi . . . . . | pag. | 307 |
| II. | Subject-matter and procedural requirements of the remedy . . . . . | »    | 308 |

CHAPTER 4

EU NON-CONTRACTUAL LIABILITY

|      |                                                                                                                               |      |     |
|------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | Introduction . . . . .                                                                                                        | pag. | 311 |
| II.  | Subjective conditions of admissibility . . . . .                                                                              | »    | 313 |
| III. | Objective conditions of admissibility . . . . .                                                                               | »    | 317 |
| IV.  | The renvoi to the general principles common to the member states . . . . .                                             | »    | 320 |
| V.   | Non-contractual liability and other direct remedies . . . . .                                                                 | »    | 324 |
| VI.  | Non-contractual liability on account of lawful acts . . . . .                                                                 | »    | 326 |
| VII. | The contractual liability of the Union and the separate category of the liability of Union agents towards the Union . . . . . | »    | 328 |

CHAPTER 5

ACTIONS AGAINST MEMBER STATES

|       |                                                                      |      |     |
|-------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.    | Scope and objective of infringement proceedings . . . . .            | pag. | 331 |
| II.   | The Commission's margin for discretion . . . . .                     | »    | 334 |
| III.  | The pre-litigation stage . . . . .                                   | »    | 337 |
| IV.   | The contentious stage . . . . .                                      | »    | 338 |
| V.    | Consequences of a finding of infringement . . . . .                  | »    | 340 |
| VI.   | The pecuniary penalty for persistent wrongdoers . . . . .            | »    | 343 |
| VII.  | Interstate infringement proceedings . . . . .                        | »    | 348 |
| VIII. | Liability of member states for violations of common values . . . . . | »    | 351 |

CHAPTER 6
PRELIMINARY RULINGS

|      |                                                                                               |      |     |
|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | The preliminary ruling jurisdiction as an instrument of dialogue between judges. ....         | pag. | 359 |
| II.  | National courts' power or obligation to refer. ....                                           | »    | 363 |
| III. | The subject-matter of preliminary rulings. ....                                               | »    | 367 |
| IV.  | The discretion granted to national courts under the supervision of the Court of Justice. .... | »    | 369 |
| V.   | Effects of preliminary rulings. ....                                                          | »    | 372 |

CHAPTER 7
STATE LIABILITY TOWARDS INDIVIDUALS

|      |                                                                                             |      |     |
|------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | The importance of the state liability principle in the supranational judiciary system. .... | pag. | 381 |
| II.  | The conditions governing compensation of loss or damage. ....                               | »    | 382 |
| III. | The evolution of case law. ....                                                             | »    | 384 |
|      | Part V Further reading. ....                                                                | »    | 388 |

PART VI
EU LAW AND MUNICIPAL LAW

CHAPTER 1
THE PRIMACY OF UNION LAW

|      |                                                                               |      |     |
|------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | The construct of the Court of Justice. ....                                   | pag. | 395 |
| II.  | The relationship of complementarity between Union law and municipal law. .... | »    | 398 |
| III. | The obligations of national courts. ....                                      | »    | 399 |

CHAPTER 2
THE AGREEMENTS CONCLUDED BY THE MEMBER STATES
BEFORE THEIR ACCESSION TO THE EU

|     |                                        |      |     |
|-----|----------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.  | The constraints on member states. .... | pag. | 405 |
| II. | The evolution of the case law. ....    | »    | 409 |

CHAPTER 3

THE ITALIAN CONSTITUTIONAL COURT AND THE DOCTRINE OF COUNTER-LIMITS

|      |                                                                     |      |     |
|------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.   | The Constitutional foundation of the principle of primacy . . . . . | pag. | 413 |
| II.  | The dualist construction: the retraction of domestic law . . . . .  | »    | 416 |
| III. | The doctrine of counter-limits. . . . .                             | »    | 418 |
| IV.  | The Taricco affair and its aftermath. . . . .                | »    | 420 |
| V.   | Resolving aporias through common values. . . . .                    | »    | 429 |

CHAPTER 4

THE PARTICIPATION OF ITALY IN THE EUROPEAN UNION

|       |                                                                                                              |      |     |
|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----|
| I.    | The rationale for a comprehensive instrument governing therelationship of Italy with the Union . . . . . | pag. | 433 |
| II.   | Law No. 234/2012 . . . . .                                                                                   | »    | 436 |
| III.  | The upstream phase. . . . .                                                                                  | »    | 438 |
| IV.   | The downstream phase . . . . .                                                                               | »    | 440 |
| V.    | National rules for monitoring state aids . . . . .                                                           | »    | 442 |
| VI.   | Internal coordination as to services of general economic interest(SGEI) . . . . .                        | »    | 444 |
| VII.  | The national state aids register . . . . .                                                                   | »    | 444 |
| VIII. | Rules on public aid for natural disasters. . . . .                                                           | »    | 446 |
|       | Part VI Further reading. . . . .                                                                             | »    | 447 |
|       | Index . . . . .                                                                                       | pag. | 451 |

---

Estratto

Estratto da un prodotto in vendita su ShopWKI, il negozio online di Wolters Kluwer Italia

Vai alla scheda →

---

Wolters Kluwer opera nel mercato dell'editoria professionale, del software, della formazione e dei servizi con i marchi: IPSOA, CEDAM, Altalex, UTET Giuridica, il fisco.

Wolters Kluwer